THE CLOTHES WE WEAR

Prep It Up

MEN AND WOMEN ARE REVISITING THE CLASSICS.

To paraphrase Irving Berlin, summer nights are for "prepping out with my baby." As seen here around town, women are looking cheek-to-cheeky in form-fitting

GET THE LOOK preppy finery, while lively color combinations for men are causing a heat wave of their own. Fuchsia linen jackets and pink, yellow, and green pants are hot this year, says Rob Skolnick, president of E.A. Davis, prep central in Wellesley. He suggests adding a bright paisley tie or, for the more adventurous, pairing a colorful blazer with Bermuda shorts. Too bold for you? To quote another Berlin ditty, "Just let yourself go." — Tina Sutton
